Dyson, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. Wm.

Gibbons, of the Zion Baptist.

Notwithstanding the threats for rain during the day the King's Dominion of which Messrs. Wesley, Fletcher and Henry Phillips were managers proved a perfect success with their picnic at Browns park last Monday evening.

The 43rd Anniversary to morrow of the Wesley Zion A. M. E. Sunday school promises, under their new Superintendent E. H. Gunnell, to be a great occasion for eminent visitors as usual. Among the many faithful Sunday School workers who are expected to be present, are Dr. S. A. Sumbly, the ex-Superintendent who so recently resigned, S. G. Brown and others.

The churches of South and East Washington were generally crowded on Sunday last.

When they learned that we represented the BEE, "Dr. Laws paper," as they called it they willingly admitted us. We found Dr. Laws busily engaged in giving aid to the committee and comfort to the hand some gathering. The following are the members of the committee to whom we were introduced:

Mesdames Mary E. Smith, pres., Mary E. Flood, Alice Jackson, Virginia Meredith, Jas. Lewis and Wm. A. Johnson. After having been served with the dainties, we retired.

Business interests among the people in this section are being paralyzed on account of the unfortunate continuances of the strike from the disagreements between capitol and labor.

PRESS COMMENTS.

RIGHT YOU ARE.

The oration of our next President General Logan, at the tomb of our late President Grant, was the greatest effort of his life.—Denver Sun.

WORSE THAN SOUTHERNERS.

The fact is beginning to be widely disclosed that Northern men in this State are more prejudiced against colored people than are the Southern whites.—Southern Leader.

RATHER SURPRISING.

The State Teacher's Association of Arkansas would have been at Pine Bluff this year, but the owners of the Opera House said they could not admit negro teachers on the first floor; they would have to go up in the gallery. And for this cause the place of meeting was changed where the colored teachers could be on the same floor with the white.—Cleveland Globe.

CORRECT VIEW OF IT.

We hear much about the boycotts, and the wickedness of the working people who use this keen instrument, that people cannot perceive the wicked boycott now carried on by the boss builders. No man can buy material for building who is not a member of the builder's association. How is that for a monopoly boycott?—The Craftsman.

WE HAVE THEM.

There are men who persistently follow a course after being convinced that they are wrong. They only continue in it because they have chosen it and have not the true method to acknowledge their error. Such men are bigger fools than the fabled colt and more obstinate than asses.—Detroit Plain Dealer.

THE PRESS CONVENTION

We agree that the Press Convention at Atlantic City can, if it will, do much for the journalism of the race, and a great deal for the race. We believe that a political box will be both ready to be opened, and we shall be there to sit down on the lid of the machine at sight. Business or nothing.—Boston Advocate.

HEDIDNT BELIEVE THEM.

When we see a Democratic Administration in control, colored Republicans against whom there are no charges, ousted from office and white Democrats put in their places, we confess that our faith is not strengthened in the Democratic Party. When President Cleveland took charge it was understood that no efficient man would be discharged except on the ground of active participation in politics. Many believed these promises. We always doubted them.—The Planet.
